Public transport

Take the train to the Kraków Główny main train station (follow the signs at the airport hall), then tram 52 from the station to the National Synchrotron Radiation Centre building.

Trains run from „Krakow Airport” to „Krakow Główny” every half hour from 5:00 a.m. to 00:30 a.m. and the fare is 9 PLN (about 2 Euro). Detailed information on connections including timetables can be found on Krakow Airport website and the <https://malopolskiekoleje.pl/index.php/routes/wieliczka-marketplace-salt-mine-krakow-airport> website (both sites available in English).

Where to buy a ticket:

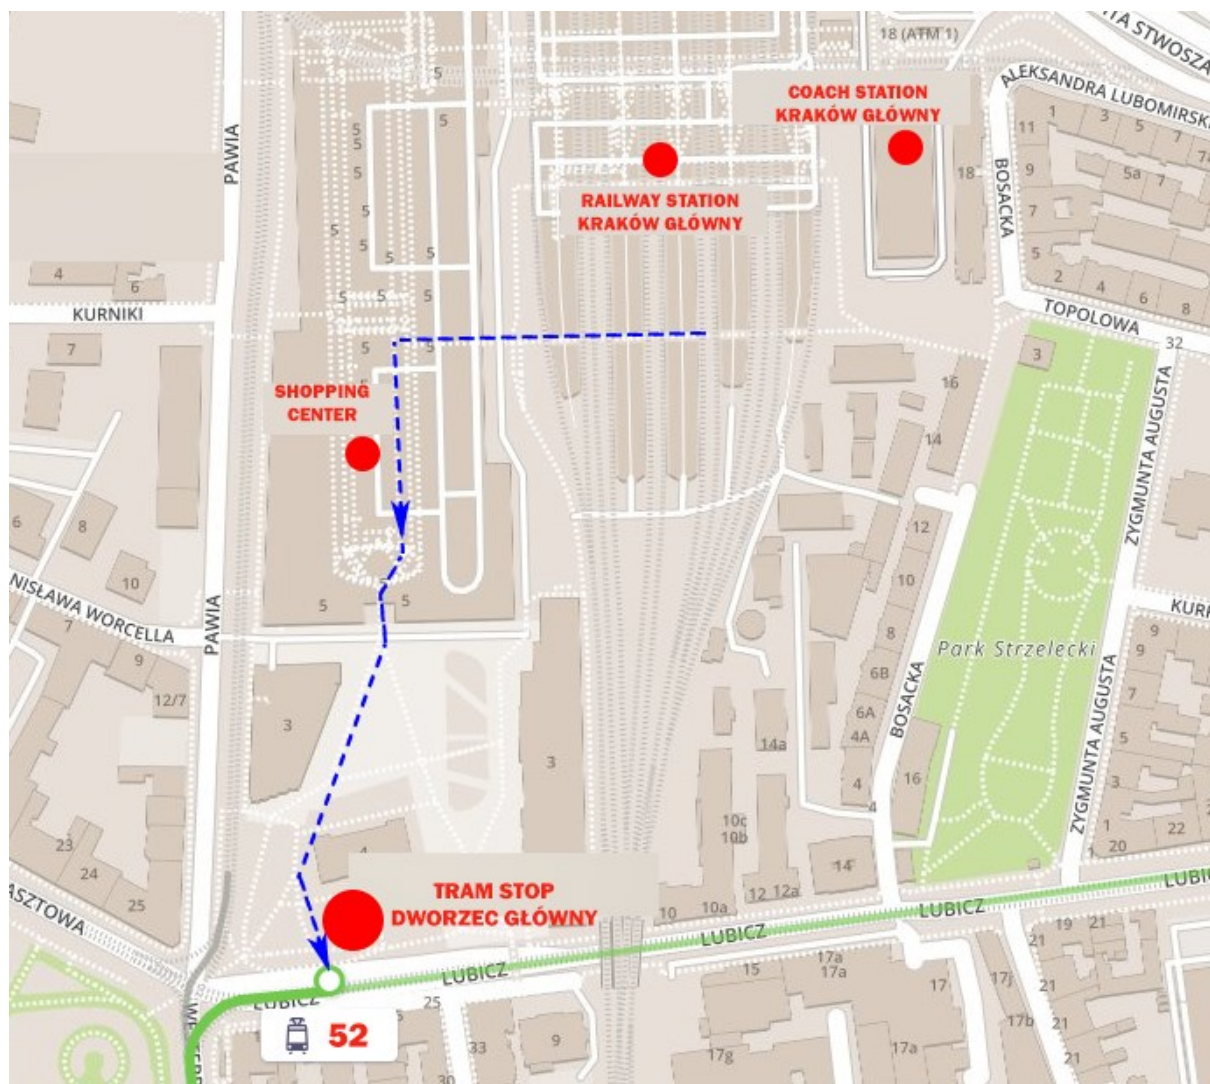

- ticket machine in passenger terminal, level 0 (cash payment or payment with credit/debit card)
- ticket machine at train station (cash payment or payment with credit/debit card)
- train conductor on board (cash payment only).

Tram: take line 52, direction „Czerwone Maki P&R” (please look at the map below). Initial stop „Dworzec Główny”. Final stop „Chmieleniec”. After getting off the tram return a few steps in the direction you came from, turn left just past the Ericsson building and go straight along Luciany Frassati-Gawrońskiej street to the end.

Information on tram timetables can be found on the MPK Department of Transport in Krakow website. We also recommend using the Jakdojade.pl or E-podroznik websites, which allows you easily find connections and plan your trip. E-podroznik is available in English.
